

Maintenance and Service Technician (m/f)

Full time | Australia, Australien

#yourmission

- Ensure deadlines and the best possible quality for all defined services
- Warehouse check according to the pre-defined maintenance check list and the training
- Continual improvement of processes, elaboration of work flows and systems within their responsibility with the aim to continuously improve efficiency
- Plan maintenance tasks and carry out agreed PPM of automation equipment
- Reporting to customer and line manager
- Spare parts management and ordering
- Repairs and replacement of components
- Supporting customer operations

#yourareknapp

- Higher national engineering certificate in electro mechanical systems
- German and English written and spoken
- Well-developed capabilities in error and problem analysis
- Ability to actively communicate one's expertise and skills within the work environment
- Training on KNAPP system and its components
- Electrical certificate (desireable)
- Knowledge in Microsoft office
- Knowledge in KNAPP internal tools

